Casa Juanzorena is a house of the XVII century. Nowadays, the house is entirely restored because of its historical and architectural interest. The building preserves its original thick stone walls and its original oak structure. The rural house is in the ground floor and it has 1 double-bedroom with en suite bathroom, 2 double-bedrooms and 1 bathroom. You will share with other guests a dining-room and sitting-room that are in one, a fireplace, books, hi-fi, TV, selection of games? and a fully-equipped kitchen. We also have a green area (500 m2) where you can have a rest, read, have a meal or a barbecue or let children play. Services: breakfast made out of home-made products, internet, information about the area, bikes renting, laundry service. Languages: English French and Spanish. Iraizotz: It is among 14 villages that make up the Ultzama Valley. In and around Iraizotz are exceptionally beautiful. The scenery is incomparable on spring and autumn and a good way to watch it is to go on a pilgrimage with us to Arañotz Mountain the first Sunday of June; in the middle of September we enjoy the fiesta of our village. Activities: In the village we have Pelota Court, Children Park, Church and the Iraizotz Inn. In the valley you can visit the Orgi oak wood (outstanding place to observe indigenous oaks and to do bird watching), the house-museum of honey production and also you can play golf, pitch and putt, do hiking, cycling, and riding. In few kilometres are Pamplona, Plazaola Green Route, San Miguel de Aralar (Viewpoint and Sanctuary), caves, cheese factories. In 45-60 minutes are the Pyrenees, Irati Forest, France, San Sebastián, Lumbier Gorge to watch vultures?
