It is a traditional house of the Naverre Pyrenee, it is located in Abaurrea Baja. It has been rebuilt in the 2010, keeping the original structure of 1738. The house has a rustic wide living room, with fireplace and TV-DVD- It has a fully equipped kitchen (washing machine, dishwasher, microwave, oven). It has five double bedrooms, each one with its bathroom and it also a common toilet. The house has a wifi area, games room, TV (in each bedrooms) and a wide terrace with furniture for enjoying views to the village and the rock of San Miguel. The house has been cataloged with THREE LEAVES by the service of Tourism from the government of Navarre. Abaurrea Baja is a small Pyrenean village which is in the Valley of Aezkoa, at the foot of the jungle of Irati. It is a traditionally village which has been dedicated to the livestock and to the agriculture. We have activities of AGROTOURISM: Visits to the farm are made, where you could know which are the work of caring of animals. In our case, cows of Pyrenees breed. These animals are from the Valley of Aezkoa, where they have been conservated to nowadays. The excursions to the jungles of Irati are interesting, routes and village trails, Roncesvalles (Camino de Santiago), Roncal Valley (ski), Leyre Monastery, and gorges of Arbayun lumbier.
