Cottage which is from before the XIX century, it is located close to the Pyrenees, in a privileged location, in the Valley Riera de Merola. Of the four floors, three of them have direct access outside, taking advantage of the slopes of the rock. Once inside, you can feel a familiar, close, quiet environment with many details and decorated with the old original furniture for the house which has been restored carefully. We should mention the intrusion of the rock inside the living-dining room that shows very cozy feelings. In 2006-2008 it has been rehabilitated with materials of the area, such as old Arabic tiles, homemade ceramics, marble in the bathrooms. The house has five bedrooms, all of them with its own bathroom. Three of them are double, one single and the last one has three rooms. We wish you a happy stay.
