THE HOUSE

“ El rincón de Elena” is a typical Castilian house, rebuilt over an old house, adapted to the requirements of the comfy without losing the charm of the traditions.

It has six wide and lightly bedrooms, all of them are outside, ended in solid wood, equipped comfortably and with own bathrooms;

-Two of them have views to the Church of Rivero, for finding the house on the feet of this magnificent temple

-Other bedroom; accessible to disabled people; it has its façade, with force balcony, to the Royal Street

-Three bedrooms are nicer and warmer attic.

Over the old stays of the house a wide living-room has been built, of 50 m2 of surface and a high of 5 meters, preside over a big chimney. Here there is conserved an old wine beam, it was used for the making of wine years ago.

This cottage also has a wide wooden kitchen, modernly equipped. Next to it, a spacious dining room which lets enjoy the attractive breakfast and exquisite lunches and dinners.

In “El rincón de Elena”, the traveler can read, have a chat next to the fire of the chimney, enjoy of a quiet event in a warm environment, even, watching the television.
