Web: www.lachimeneademiabuela.com

Typical house of the area fully rebuilt, keeping the chimney where slaughter was cured years ago. The house has capacity for ten people with heating, barbecue and chimney. The living room-kitchen is fully equipped. The house has three full bathrooms, one toilet and five double bedrooms (one of them is adapted for disabled people). The house is located in Villalvaro, a village of about 180 inhabitants, included in the Origin denomination of Ribera del Duero. To accompany the wine the good roast are typical from the village, products of the slaughter, mushrooms, any kind of grilled meats and lambs of the village of course. In the village you can visit the church of San Mames and the hermitages of San Pedro and The Virgin of the Lagoons. The village has health center, hairdresser, fish market and a bar. There is a river (River Rejas) where there is the riverside grove for spending a quiet time, doing hiking, bike riding, hunting or fishing. During the months of summer canning courses can be made 10 km far away.
