The Rural Hotel El Adarve is a rural lodging located in a building of traditional style that is located in the medieval villa of Ayllón, located in the Northeast area of Segovia. Ayllón is a medieval villa that surprises the traveller by its architecture, its traditions and its streets, in where you could enjoy the nature at any moment. The building where it is, built in 1999, is of traditional style and rustic kind, with stone walls, wooden ceilings and mud floors. The house is located in the historical-artistic set of Ayllón and its main façade drives to one of the most emblematic and centric streets of the locality, El Parral Street. It has a total of 8 bedrooms, all of them with bathroom. They are distributed of the following way: 5 double beds, 1 single, 1 triple and 1 quadruple. We also have for your disposal 1 extra bed and 1 cot. Some bedrooms are attic and some others have terrace, from where you can contemplate the art, the history, the traditions and the streets of the villa. The decor is simple and traditional, with old and restored furniture that create a warm and cosy environment where you could enjoy the tranquillity and calm that you were looking for. El Adarve serves the breakfast every day in the dining room, an ideal place to relax and to play cards or table games. In the living room with fireplace you could get information about the area. Besides, there is a yard outside with benches and tables.
