La Pinariega is a stone rustic house from the beginning of the XIX century. Fully restored, the house is in the heart of Vinuesa, decorated with three balconies of forge, two windows and the main door. It has 5 double bedrooms with TV, bathroom and central heating and it keeps the wooden floors that are now in its full splendor after being restored. On the back part it is the garden- with its old stone well- to have a rest and enjoy the whole day. It also has living room with fireplace, dining room and kitchen. We could see old furniture, witness of old houses but without any doubt where we can see its beauty is in the beautiful stairs with its old balustrade that goes from the ground floor to the attic. In the whole house you can breathe a rustic environment that harmonizes with the rest of the village
